OF ENGLAND

Friday 23rd September, 2016

Dear Parents,

Homework consultation

Thank you for your responses. We will consider them and get back to you with a revised policy.

Events next week

- Quantum Theatre

Maths production: a play with a mathematical flavour will be performed on Monday. It is called "Shape, Space and Desperate Measures." This should be fun and interesting!

- Welly Walk for Africa

Children in Years 5 and 6 are organising this event on Wednesday morning. Please support the day by sending children with wellies and please support the fundraising for a very worthy cause.

Attendance

This week the best attendance was in Year 1 with 98.6% – well done Mrs Barrett's class!! Overall attendance was 95.5%. Very disappointing!! I know that the quality of education we are providing is steadily improving – there is some really good teaching is going on. So it is frustrating that children are missing it!
